CCDC congratulates board member Brad Johnson on being awarded the Max Holzer Lifetime Achievement Award from CCIIR. This honor is given to distinguished members of the commercial real estate industry who are known for their ethics, professionalism, and commitment throughout the industry and community.

We are proud to have Brad as a member of the CCDC board. This also marks the second consecutive year a CCDC board member has received this distinction.

In December, Congress passed a second phase of the CARES Act originally approved in March of 2020. Details include:

- Subsidized loan payments are again available.
- Reduction of 504 fees for new loans

*All are subject to available funds.
